- (3) The State Government shall, on the advice of the technical committee referred to in sub-rule (2) categorize the occupations of the employees into four categories, namely:- (i) unskilled, (ii) semi-skilled, (iii) skilled and (iv) highly skilled by modifying, deleting or adding any entry in the categorization of such occupations specified in Schedule A.
- (4) The technical committee referred in sub-rule (2) shall while advising the State Government under sub-rule (3) take into account, to the possible extent, the national classification of occupation or national skills qualification frame work or other similar frame work for the time being formulated to identify occupations.

5. Appointment of the committees.-

The State Advisory Board may constitute as many committee or sub-committee under sub-section (5) of section 42 as it considers necessary for the purposes specified in that clause.

6. Time Interval for revision of dearness allowance.-

Endeavour shall be made so that the cost of living allowance and the cash value of the concession in respect of essential commodities at concession rate shall be computed once before 1st April and then before 1st October in every year to revise the dearness allowance payable to the employees on the minimum wages.

7. Number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day.-

- (1) The normal working day under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall comprised of 8 (eight) hours of work and one or more intervals of rest which in total shall not exceed 1 (one) hour.
- (2) The working day of an employee shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals of rest, if any, it shall not spread over more than 12 (twelve) hours In any day.
- (3) The provisions of sub-rules (1) and (2) shall, in the case of an employee employed in agricultural employment, subject to such modifications as may, from time to time, be determined by the State Government.
- (4) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948).

8. Weekly day of rest.-

(1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee shall be allowed one day of rest every week (hereinafter referred to as "the rest day") which shall ordinarily be Sunday, but the employer may fix any other day of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees:

Provided that an employee shall be entitled for the rest day under this sub-rule if he has worked under the same employer for a continuous period of not less than 6 (six) days:

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the day fixed as the rest day and of any subsequent change in the rest day before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect in the place of employment at the place specified by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator in this behalf.

Explanation.- For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than 6 (six) days specified in the first proviso to this sub-rule, any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work, a day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), and any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days immediately preceding the rest day, shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked.

(2) Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the 5 (five) days immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made which will result in the employee working for more than 10 (ten) days consecutively without a rest day for a whole day.

- (3) Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this rule, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the 5 (five) days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.
- (4) An employee shall be granted-
- (i) for rest day wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day; and
- (ii) Where he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that where-

- (a) The minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by 26 (twenty- six); or
- (b) the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by 26 (twenty-six) and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and
- (c) the actual daily rates of wages of the employee has been workout by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by the number of days in a month and
- (d) the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate; and, if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out in accordance with the provisions of this proviso, the Joint Labour Commissioner or Deputy Labour Commissioner or Assistant labour Commissioner of the State Government having territorial jurisdiction may, on application made to him in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations:

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, the wages for the rest day, or the substituted rest day, as the case may be, shall be such as the state Government may, from time to time determine having regard to the minimum rate of wages fixed under the Code, in respect of the employment.

Explanation.-In this sub-rule 'next preceding day'means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

(5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favourable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favourable terms aforesaid.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this rule, 'week' shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

9. Night shifts.-

- (1) An accused person desirous of making composition of offence under sub-section (1) of section 56 may make an application in Form VI electronically or otherwise to the Gazetted Officer notified under said sub-section (1).
- (2) The Gazetted Officer referred to in sub-rule (1), shall, on receipt of such application, satisfy himself as to whether the offence is compoundable or not under the Code and if the offence is compoundable and the accused person agrees for the composition, compromise the offence for a sum of fifty per cent of the maximum fine provided for such offence under the Code, to be paid by the accused within the time specified in the order of composition issued by such officer.
- (3) Where the offence has been compromised under sub-rule (2) after the institution of the prosecution, then, the officer shall send a copy of such order made by him for intimation to the officer referred to in sub-section (1) of section 53 for needful action under sub-section (6) of section 56.

CHAPTER VII MISCELLANEOUS

47. Timely Payment of Wages.-

Where the employees are employed in an establishment through contractor, then, the company or firm or association or any other person who is the proprietor of the establishment shall pay to the contractor the amount payable to him or it, as the case may be, before the date of payment of wages so that payment of wages to the employees shall be made positively in accordance with the provisions of section 17.

Explanation.-For the purpose of this rule, the expression "firm" shall have the meaning as assigned to it in the Indian Partnership Act, 1932 (9 of 1932).

48. Responsibility for payment of minimum bonus.-

Where in an establishment, the employees are employed through contractor and the contractor fails to pay minimum bonus to them under section 26, then, the company or firm or association or other person as referred to in the proviso to section 43 shall, on the written information of such failure, given by the employees or any registered trade union or unions of which the employees are members and on confirming such failure, pay such minimum bonus to the employees.

49. Inspection scheme.-

- (1) For the purposes of the Code and these rules, there shall be formulated an inspection scheme by the Labour Commissioner (Sikkim) with the approval of the State Government.
- (2) In the inspection scheme referred to in sub-rule (1), apart from other structural facts, number shall be specified in the scheme for each Inspector-cum-Facilitator and establishment.
- 50. Repeal and Savings: The Equal Remuneration Rules, 1976, the Sikkim Minimum Wages Rules, 2005 and the Sikkim Payment of Wages Rules, 1992 are hereby repealed:

Provided that, the said repeal shall not affect,-

- (a) the previous operation of the said rules or anything duly done or suffered thereunder, or
- (b) affect any right, liability or obligation acquired, occurred or incurred under the said rules
