CHAPTER II

Minimum Wages

3. Manner of calculating the minimum rate of wages.— (1) For the purposes of sub-section (5) of section 6, the minimum rate of wages shall be fixed on the day basis considering the following criteria, namely:—

(i) the standard working class family which includes a spouse and two children apart from the earning worker; and equivalent of three adult consumption units;

(ii) a net intake of 2700 calories per day per consumption unit;

(iii) 66 meters cloth, per year, per standard working class family;

(iv) housing rent expenditure to constitute 10 per cent of food and clothing expenditure;

(v) fuel, electricity and other miscellaneous items of expenditure to constitute 20 percent of minimum wage; and

(vi) expenditure for children education, medical requirement, recreation and expenditure on contingencies to constitute 25 percent of minimum wage.

(2) When the rate of wages for a day is fixed, then, such amount shall be divided by eight for fixing the rate of wages for an hour and multiplied by twenty six for fixing the rate of wages for a month and in such division and multiplication the factors of one-half and more than one-half shall be rounded as next figure and the factors less than one-half shall be ignored.

4. Norms for fixation of minimum rate of wages.— (1) While fixing the minimum rate of wages under section 6, the Government shall divide the concerned geographical area into two categories, namely, Zone A and Zone B.

(2) The Government shall constitute a technical committee for the purpose of advising the State Government in respect of skill categorization, which shall consist of the following members, namely:—

(i) Secretary Labour, Government of Goa — Chairperson;

(ii) A representative from the Department of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, Government of Goa, dealing with skill development — Member;

(iii) Four representatives, two each of employer and employees, expert in wage determination, as nominated by the Government — Members;

(iv) One technical expert in wage determination as nominated by the Government — Member.

(v) Commissioner, Labour and Employment — Member Secretary;

(3) The Government shall, on the advice of the technical committee referred to in sub-rule (2), categorize the occupations of the employees into four categories, namely, unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled by modifying, deleting or adding any entry in the categorization of such occupations specified in the Schedule.

(4) The technical committee referred in sub-rule (2) shall while advising the State Government under sub-rule (3) take into account, to the possible extent, the national classification of occupation or national skills qualification frame work or other similar frame work for the time being formulated to identify occupations.

5. Time interval for revision of dearness allowance.— Endeavour shall be made so that the cost of living allowance and the cash value of the concession in respect of essential commodities at concession rate shall be computed once before 1st April and 1st October in every year to revise the dearness allowance payable to the employees on the minimum wages.

Provided that where immediately before the issue of a notification under section 8, fixing or revising the minimum rates of wages and dearness allowance at the rate higher than the rate so fixed or revised, were payable under this Code, or under any law or award or agreement for the time being in force, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Code, dearness allowance at such higher rate shall be payable to the employees.

6. Number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day.— (1) The normal working day under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall be comprised of eight hours of work and one or more intervals of rest which in total shall not exceed one hour.

(2) The working day of an employee shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals of rest, if any, it shall not spread over more than twelve hours on any day.

(3) The provisions of sub-rules (1) and (2) shall, in the case of an employee employed in agricultural employment, be subject to such modifications as may, from time to time, be determined by the Government.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948) or the code on Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020 (Central Act No. 37 of 2020) and the Goa, Daman and Diu Shops and Establishments Act, 1973 (Act 13 of 1974).

7. Weekly day of rest.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee shall be allowed a day of rest every week (hereinafter referred to as “the rest day”) which shall ordinarily be Sunday, but the employer may fix any other day of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees:

Provided that an employee shall be entitled for the rest day under this sub-rule if he has worked under the same employer for a continuous period of not less than six days:

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the day fixed as the rest day and of any subsequent change in the rest day before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect in the place of employment at the place specified by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator in this behalf.

Explanation: For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days specified in the first proviso to this sub-rule,—

(a) any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work;

(b) any day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), and

(c) any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days immediately preceding the rest day, shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked.

(2) Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the five days immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made which will result in the employee working for more than ten days consecutively without a rest day for a whole day.

(3) Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this rule, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the five days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.

(4) An employee shall be granted for the rest day wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day and in case he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that where the minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under this Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty-six; or where the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty-six and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable, and in case the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, he shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate; and, if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out as aforesaid the Commissioner may, on application made to him in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations.

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, the wages for the rest day, or the substituted rest day, as the case may be, shall be such as the Government may, from time to time, determine having regard to the minimum rate of wages fixed under the Code, in respect of the employment.

Explanation: In this sub-rule 'next preceding day' means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

(5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favourable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favourable terms aforesaid.

Explanation: For the purposes of this rule, 'week' shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

8. Night shifts.— Where an employee in an employment works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then,—

(a) a rest day for the whole day for the purposes of rule 7 shall mean a period of twenty four consecutive hours beginning from the time when his shift ends; and

(b) the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of twenty-four hours beginning from the time when such shift ends, and the hours after midnight during which such employee was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.

9. The extent and conditions for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 13.— In case of employees-

(a) engaged in any emergency which could not have been foreseen or prevented;

(b) engaged in work of the nature of preparatory or complementary work which must necessarily be carried on outside the limits laid down for the general working in the employment concerned;

(c) whose employment is essentially intermittent;

(d) engaged in any work which for technical reasons has to be completed before the duty is over; and

(e) engaged in a work which could not be carried on except at times dependent on the irregular action of natural forces, the provisions of rules 6, 7 and 8 shall apply subject to the condition that,—

(i) the spread over of the hours of work of the employee shall not exceed 16 hours in any day; and

(ii) the actual hours of work excluding the intervals of rest and the periods of inaction during which the employee may be on duty but is not called upon to display either physical activity or sustained attendance shall not exceed 9 hours in any day.

10. Longer wage period.— The longer wage period for the purposes of minimum rate of wages under section 14 shall be by the month.

CHAPTER III

Payment of wages

11. Recovery under sub-section (4) of section 18.— Where the total deductions authorized under sub-section (2) of section 18 exceed fifty per cent of the wages of an employee, the excess shall be carried forward and recovered from the wages of succeeding wage period or wage periods, as the case may be, in such installments so that the recovery in any month shall not exceed the fifty per cent of the wages of the employee in that month.

12. The authority for imposition of fine under sub-section (1) of section 19.— The Commissioner, shall be the authority for imposition of fine under sub-section (1) of section 19.

13. The manner of exhibiting the notice under sub-section (2) of section 19.— A notice referred to in sub-section (2) of section 19 shall be displayed at the conspicuous places in the premises of the work place in which the employment is carried on, so that every concerned employee would be able easily to read the contents of the notice and a copy of the notice shall be sent to the Inspector-cum-Facilitator having jurisdiction.

14. The procedure for imposition of fines under sub-section (3) of section 19.— The employer shall give an intimation in writing specifying therein the detailed particulars for obtaining the approval of the imposition of fine to the Commissioner, who shall, before granting or refusing the approval, give opportunity of being heard to the employee and the employer concerned.

15. Intimation of deduction.— (1) The employer making deduction in pursuance of the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 20, shall give intimation of such deduction to the Inspector-cum-Facilitator having jurisdiction within 10 days from the date of such deduction explaining therein the reason of such deduction.

(2) The Inspector-cum-Facilitator, after receiving the intimation under sub-rule (1), examine such intimation and if he finds that the explanation given therein is in contravention of any provision of the Code or the rules made there under, he shall initiate appropriate action under the Code against the employer.

16. Procedure for deduction under sub-section (2) of section 21.— Any employer desiring to make deduction for damages or loss under sub-section (1) of section 21 from the wages of an employee shall,—

(i) explain to the employee personally and also in writing the damage or loss of goods expressly entrusted to the employee for custody or for loss of money for which he is required to account and how such damages or loss is directly attributable to the neglect or default of the employee; and

(ii) thereafter, give the employee an opportunity to offer any explanation and deduction for any damages or loss, if made, shall be intimated to the employee within fifteen days from the date of such deduction.

17. Conditions regarding recovery of advance under section 23.— The recovery, as the case may be of,—

(i) advance of money given to an employee after the employment begins as stated in clause (b) of section 23; or

(ii) advances of wages to an employee not already earned as stated in clause (c) of section 23, shall be made by the employer from the wages of the concerned employee in instalments determined by the employer, so as any or all instalments in a wage period shall not exceed fifty percent of the wages of the employee in that wage period and the particulars of such recovery shall be recorded in the register maintained in Form-I.

18. Deduction under section 24.— Deductions for recovery of loans granted for house building or other purposes approved by the Government and the interest due in respect thereof shall be subject to any direction made or circular issued by the Government from time to time regulating the extent to which such loans may be granted and the rate of interest shall be payable thereon.

19. Meeting of the Board.— The Chairperson may, subject to the provisions of rule 21, call a meeting of the Board, at any time he thinks fit:

Provided that on requisition in writing from not less than one half of the members, the Chairperson shall call a meeting within fifteen days from the date of the receipt of such requisition.
