6. Circumstances in which an employee shall not be entitled to receive wages for a full normal working day (clause (ii) of the proviso to section 10 of the Code) :

1. A person employed for a period of less than the requisite number of hours constituting a normal working day, shall not be entitled to receive wages for a full normal working day to the extent to which he has remained himself absent during the normal working hours.

2. An employee shall not be entitled to receive wages for a full normal working day under Section 10, if he is not entitled to receive such wage under any other law for the time being in force.

7. Number of Hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day (clause (a) of sub-Section (1) of Section 13 of the Code) :

1. No employee shall be required or allowed to work in an establishment for more than forty eight hours in a week.
2. The normal working day under clause (a) of sub-Section (1) of Section 13 shall be comprised of eight hours of work and one or more intervals of rest which in total shall not exceed one hour.
3. The working day of an employee shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals of rest, if any, it shall not spread over more than twelve hours on any day.
4. Nothing in this Rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Code on Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions 2020.
5. No employee shall be allowed to work for more than five hours continuously before he has had an interval for rest of at least half an hour.
6. The provisions of sub-Rules (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) shall, in the case of an employee employed in agricultural employment, be subject to such modifications as may, from time to time be determined by the state government.

8. Weekly day of rest (clause (b) and (c) of sub-Section (1) of Section 13 of the Code) :

1. Subject to the provisions of this Rule, an employee shall be allowed rest of one day or more than one day as the case may be, every week (hereinafter referred to as "the rest days") which in case of six day week shall ordinarily be Sunday and in case of less than six day week shall include Saturday and Sunday, but the employer may fix any other days of the week as the rest days for any employee or class of employees.

Provided that in a six day working week or less than six days working week, as the case may be, the remaining days of the week shall be paid rest days for such employees.

Provided that an employee shall be entitled for the rest days under this sub-Rule if he has worked under the same employer in case of six day week for a continuous period of not less than six days and in case of less than six day working week for a continuous period of the stipulated number of working days as the case may be.

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the days fixed as the rest days and of any subsequent change in the rest days before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect at a conspicuous place in the place of employment.

Explanation.- For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days or the stipulated number of working days in a week specified in the second proviso to this sub-Rule,

- a. any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work,
- b. any day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), and
- c. any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days or during the stipulated number of working days of a week as the case may be, immediately preceding the rest days, shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked.

1. Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the working days in a week immediately before or after the rest day:
2. Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Rule, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the working days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.
3. An employee shall be granted -
 - a. for rest day, wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day; and
 - b. where he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, Then, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that in case of six day week where-the minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty six; or

- ii. the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty six and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and
- iii. the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate; and, if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out in accordance with the provisions of this proviso, the Labour Commissioner or the Deputy Labour Commissioner having territorial jurisdiction may, on application made to him in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations.

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he works, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day."

Explanation - In this sub-Rule next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on the day immediately after the rest day, the next proceeding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

5. The provisions of this Rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favourable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favourable terms aforesaid.

Explanation - For the purposes of this Rule, 'week' shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

6. Night shifts : Where an employee in an employment works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then, -
 - a. a rest day for the whole day for the purposes of this Rule shall, in this case means a period of twenty-four consecutive 'hours beginning from the time when his shift ends; and
 - b. the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of twenty-four hours beginning from the time when such shift ends, and the hours after midnight during which such an employee was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.
9. The extent and conditions for the purposes of sub-Section (2) of Section 13 of the Code : In case of employees -
 - a. engaged in any emergency which could not have been foreseen or prevented;
 - b. engaged in work of the nature of preparatory or complementary work which must necessarily be carried on outside the limits laid down for the general working in the employment concerned;
 - c. whose employment is essentially intermittent;
 - d. engaged in any work which for technical reasons has to be completed before the duty is over; and
 - e. engaged in a work which could not be carried on except at times dependent on the irregular action of natural forces; the provisions of Rules 6, 7 and 8 shall apply subject to the condition that -
 - i. the spread over of the hours of work of the employee shall not exceed 16 hours in any day; and
 - ii. the actual hours of work excluding the intervals of rest and the

The amount referred to in sub-Rule (1) of vRe 39 (hereinafter in this Rule referred to as the amount) deposited with the Labour Officer or Assistant Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction shall remain with him and be invested in the Central or State Government Securities or deposited as a fixed deposit in a scheduled bank.
2. The Labour Officer or Assistant Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction will exhibit, as soon as maybe possible, a notice containing such particulars regarding the amount as the Labour Officer or Assistant Labour Commissioner considers sufficient for information at least for fifteen days on the notice board and also publish such notice in any two newspapers being circulated in the language commonly understood in the area in which undisbursed wages were earned.
3. Subject to the provision of sub-Rule (4), the Labour Officer or Assistant Labour Commissioner having jurisdiction shall release the amount to the nominee or to that person who has claimed such amount, as the case may be, in whose favour such Labour Officer or Assistant Labour Commissioner has decided, after giving the opportunity of being heard, the amount to be paid.
4. If the undisbursed amount remains unclaimed for a period of three years, the same shall be dealt with in the manner as directed by the State Government from time to time on this behalf.

CHAPTER VI
THE FORM, REGISTER AND-WAGE SLIP

41. The form of a single application (sub-Section (5) of Section 45 of the Code) :

1. A single application may be filed under sub-Section (5) of Section 45 in Form-II manually or electronically along with documents specified in the said Form.
2. Where an application under sub-Section (5) of Section 45 is entertained, the authority shall serve upon the employer electronically or by registered post a notice in Form-VIII to appear before him on the date specified in the notice with all relevant documents and witnesses, if any, and shall inform the applicant of the date so specified.
3. If the employer or his representative fails to appear on the specified date, the authority may hear and determine the application ex-parte.
4. If the applicant or his representative fails to appear on the specified date without any reasonable cause shown in advance, the authority may dismiss the application.

42. Appeal (sub-Section (1) of Section 49 of the Code)

1. Any person aggrieved by an order passed by the authority under sub-Section (2) of Section 45 may prefer an appeal under sub-Section (1) of Section 49 in Form-III electronically or by registered post, along with documents mentioned by the appellant in the said Form, to the appellate authority having jurisdiction:
Provided that no appeal by an employer shall be admitted unless at the time of preferring the appeal, the appellant has deposited the claim amount with the appellate authority.
2. Where an appeal under sub-Section (1) of Section 49 is entertained, the appellate authority, shall serve upon the respondent electronically or by registered post a notice in Form-VIII to appear before him on the date specified in the notice and shall inform the appellant of the date so specified.
3. The appellate authority shall after hearing the appellant and the respondent shall, by Order, decide the appeal.
