- (a) Every person appointed as Administrative Member shall, before entering upon his office, make and subscribe an oath of office and secrecy in the (Form-X) annexed to these rules.
- (2) The salaries and allowances, resignation, removal and other terms and conditions of the Administrative Member so appointed shall be the same as are applicable to them in their respective Cadres of service.

(3) The Government shall fill vacancy under sub-section (9) of section 44 in Industrial Tribunal arising out of retirement, transfer, dismissal or any other reason in accordance with these rules.

42. Manner of holding conciliation proceedings under sub-section (1), full report under sub-section (4), and application and the manner of deciding such application under sub-section (6) of section 53:- (1) Where the Conciliation Officer receives any information about an existing or apprehended industrial dispute and he considers it necessary to intervene in the dispute, he shall give formal intimation to the parties concerned declaring his intention to commence conciliation proceedings with effect from such date as may be specified therein.

(a) The party representing workmen involved in an industrial dispute shall forward a statement of its demands along with a copy of the notice to the Conciliation Officer concerned. The statement shall be accompanied by as many spare copies thereof as there are opposite parties.

(b) The party representing workmen, or in the case of an individual workman, the workman, himself involved in a dispute shall forward a statement of its demands to the Conciliation Officer concerned before such date as may be specified by him for commencing conciliation proceedings. The statement shall be accompanied by as many spare copies thereof as there are opposite parties.

The conciliation Officer shall send to the opposite party concerned a copy of the statement received, as the case may be, who shall file its rejoinder with the Conciliation Officer within a period of one week of its receipt: Provided that the Conciliation Officer may when he considers necessary extend the time limit for the filing of the rejoinder by any party.

(c) The statement of demands submitted by the party representing the workmen, or in the case of individual workman by the workman himself along with a copy of the rejoinder shall be transmitted to the Government by the Conciliation Officer concerned with his report.

(d) Where an employer, or the party representing the workmen, or in the case of individual workman, the workman himself applies to the Government for reference of an industrial dispute to a Labour Court or Tribunal, such application shall be accompanied by a statement of the demands or matters in dispute with as many spare copies thereof as there are opposite parties.

- (e) The statement and every copy thereof required under the said sub-rules to accompany the said statement shall be duly signed, on behalf of the party, by the person making it.
- (2) If no such settlement is arrived at in the conciliation proceeding referred to in sub-rule (1), the conciliation officer shall submit a report electronically or otherwise within seven days from the date on which the conciliation proceedings are concluded.
- (3) The report referred to in sub-rule (2) shall be communicated electronically or otherwise to the parties concerned.
- (4) The report referred to in sub-rule (2) shall contain inter-alia the submissions of the employer, worker or Trade union, as the case may be, and it shall also contain the efforts made by the conciliation officer to bring the parties to the amicable settlement, reasons for refusal of the parties to resolve the dispute and the conclusion of the conciliation officer.
- (5) Any dispute which is not settled during the conciliation proceedings, then, either of the concerned party may make an application in Form-XI, before the Tribunal electronically or otherwise within ninety days from the date of the report under sub-rule (2).
- (6) In case of an industrial dispute which has not been settled during the conciliation proceedings, an application may be made before the Tribunal by either of the parties concerned for adjudication. The Tribunal shall direct the party raising the dispute to file a statement of claim with complete details along with relevant documents, list of supporting documents and witnesses within thirty days from the date on which application is filed. A copy of such statement may be sent electronically or otherwise for service on each of the opposite parties in the dispute.
- (7) The Tribunal after ascertaining that the copies of statement of claim and other related documents are furnished to the other side by the party raising the dispute, the Tribunal shall fix the first hearing as soon as possible and within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the application. The opposite party or parties shall file their written statement together with supporting documents and the list thereof and list of witnesses, if any, within a period of thirty days from the date of first hearing and simultaneously forward a copy thereof to the opposite party or parties for service.
- (8) Where the Tribunal finds that the party raising the dispute, despite its directions, did not forward the copy of the statement of claim and other documents to the opposite party or parties, it shall give directions to the concerned party to furnish the copy of the statement to the opposite party or parties, granting extension of fifteen days for filing the statement, if the Tribunal finds sufficient cause for not filing the statement of claim and other documents within time.

(9) The evidence shall be recorded either in Tribunal or may be filed on affidavit but in the case of affidavit the opposite party shall have the right to cross-examine each of the deponents filing the affidavit. Where the oral examination of each witness proceeds, the Tribunal shall make a memorandum of the substance of what is being deposed. While recording the oral evidence the Tribunal shall follow the procedure laid down in rule 5 of Order XVIII of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908).

(10) On completion of evidence, arguments may be heard immediately or a date may be fixed for arguments, which shall not be beyond a period of fifteen days from the closure of evidence.

(11) The Tribunal shall not ordinarily grant an adjournment for a period exceeding a week at a time, but not in any case more than three adjournments in all, at the instance of the parties to the dispute, shall be granted:

Provided that the Tribunal for reasons to be recorded in writing, grant an adjournment exceeding a week at a time but not in any case more than three adjournments, at the instance of any one of the parties to the dispute, shall be granted.

(12) In case any party defaults or fails to appear at any stage, the Tribunal may proceed with the case ex-parte, and decide the application in the absence of the defaulting party:

Provided that the Tribunal may on the application of either party filed before the submission of the award, revoke the order that the case shall proceed ex- parte, if it is satisfied that the absence of the party was on justifiable grounds, and proceed further to decide the matter as contested.

(13) The Tribunal shall communicate its award electronically to the parties concerned and the Government within one month from the date of the pronouncement of the award.

(14) The Tribunal may summon and examine any person whose evidence appears to it to be material for deciding the case and shall be deemed to be a civil court within the meaning of sections 345, 346 and 348 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (1 of 1974).

(15) Where assessors are appointed to advise a Tribunal under sub-section (5) of section 49 in relation to proceeding before it, the Tribunal shall obtain the advice of such assessors, but such advice shall not be binding on such Tribunals.

(16) A party in an award, who wants to obtain a copy of the award or other document, may obtain a copy of the award or other document after depositing the fee electronically in the Tribunal in the following manner, namely:

- (a) fee for obtaining a copy of an award or the document filed in any proceedings of Tribunal be charged at the rate of Rs. Two per page.
 - (b) For certifying a copy of any such award or order or document, a fee of Re. Two per page shall be payable.
 - (c) Copying and certifying fees shall be payable electronically.
 - (d) Where a party applies for immediate delivery of a copy of any such award or document, an additional fee equal to one-half of the fee leviable under this rule shall be payable.
- (17) The representatives of the parties appearing before a Tribunal shall have the right of examination, cross-examination and of addressing the Tribunal when evidence has been called.
- (18) The proceedings before Tribunal shall be held in open court:
Provided that the Tribunal may direct any proceeding before it to be held by video conferencing.
Provided further that Tribunal may at any stage direct that any witness shall be examined or its proceedings be held in-camera.
